

ResFest 2018

Interested in the ResFest: Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Logistics Coordinator or Event Coordinator Positions?

Chairperson: The chairperson must conceive, plan and carry out the desired theme of ResFest. Chairperson must be extremely creative and able to work under heavy pressure. Tenacity, diligence and a great personality is an absolute must. This position is only open to highly driven individuals who are able to work without heavy instruction. He/she is responsible for interviewing and hiring the Event Coordinators of each ResFest event. He/she is also responsible for meeting with the Dean of Residence Life and the Office Advisor(s). He/she must submit a proposal stating their intentions as Chairperson. Those interested in bringing new and exciting events to the ResFest lineup are also encouraged to apply and submit a proposal for the event of their choosing.

Vice-Chair: The Vice-Chair is second in command to the Chairperson. He/she must conceive, plan and carry out the desired theme of ResFest set by the Chairperson. The Vice-Chair must be extremely creative and able to work under heavy pressure. Tenacity, diligence and a great personality is an absolute must. This position is only open to highly driven individuals who are able to work without heavy instruction. He/she is responsible for interviewing and hiring the Event Coordinators of each ResFest event with the Chairperson and Logistics Director. He/she is also responsible for meeting with the Dean of Residence Life and the Office Advisor(s). He/she must submit a proposal stating their intentions as Vice-Chair. Those interested in bringing new and exciting events to the ResFest lineup are also encouraged to apply and submit a proposal for the event of their choosing.

Logistics Director: The Logistics Director is responsible for making the event coordinator's theme come to life. He/she is responsible for gathering material list from event coordinators and submitting to the Central Office Advisors. The Logistics Director is also responsible for hiring volunteers for each ResFest Event. Director must be able to work under heavy pressure. Tenacity, diligence and a great personality is an absolute must. This position is only open to highly driven individuals who are able to work without heavy instruction. He/she is responsible for meeting with the Chairperson, Vice-Chair, Dean of Residence Life and Central Office Advisor(s).

The Office of Residence Life
ResFest 2018 Application
(Application Must Be Typed)

IV. Position of Interest (Use Additional Paper If Needed)

Position Seeking:

Related Experience:

Please provide a detailed description of your vision for your position of interest:

Due Date:

Signature

Date